Bali Best Croissant History

Croissants , a type of pastry originating from France, are named so because of their shape which resembles a crescent moon. It is a very popular pastry that can be commonly found in cafes and bakery shops.

The croissant is actually inspired by Kipfel, an Austrian crescent-shaped bread that uses a lot of butter topped with sugar and almonds. According to legend, Kipfel was originally created in 1683 as a form of celebration of the victory of the Kingdom of Austria against the Ottoman Turks, which was occupying the city of Vienna.

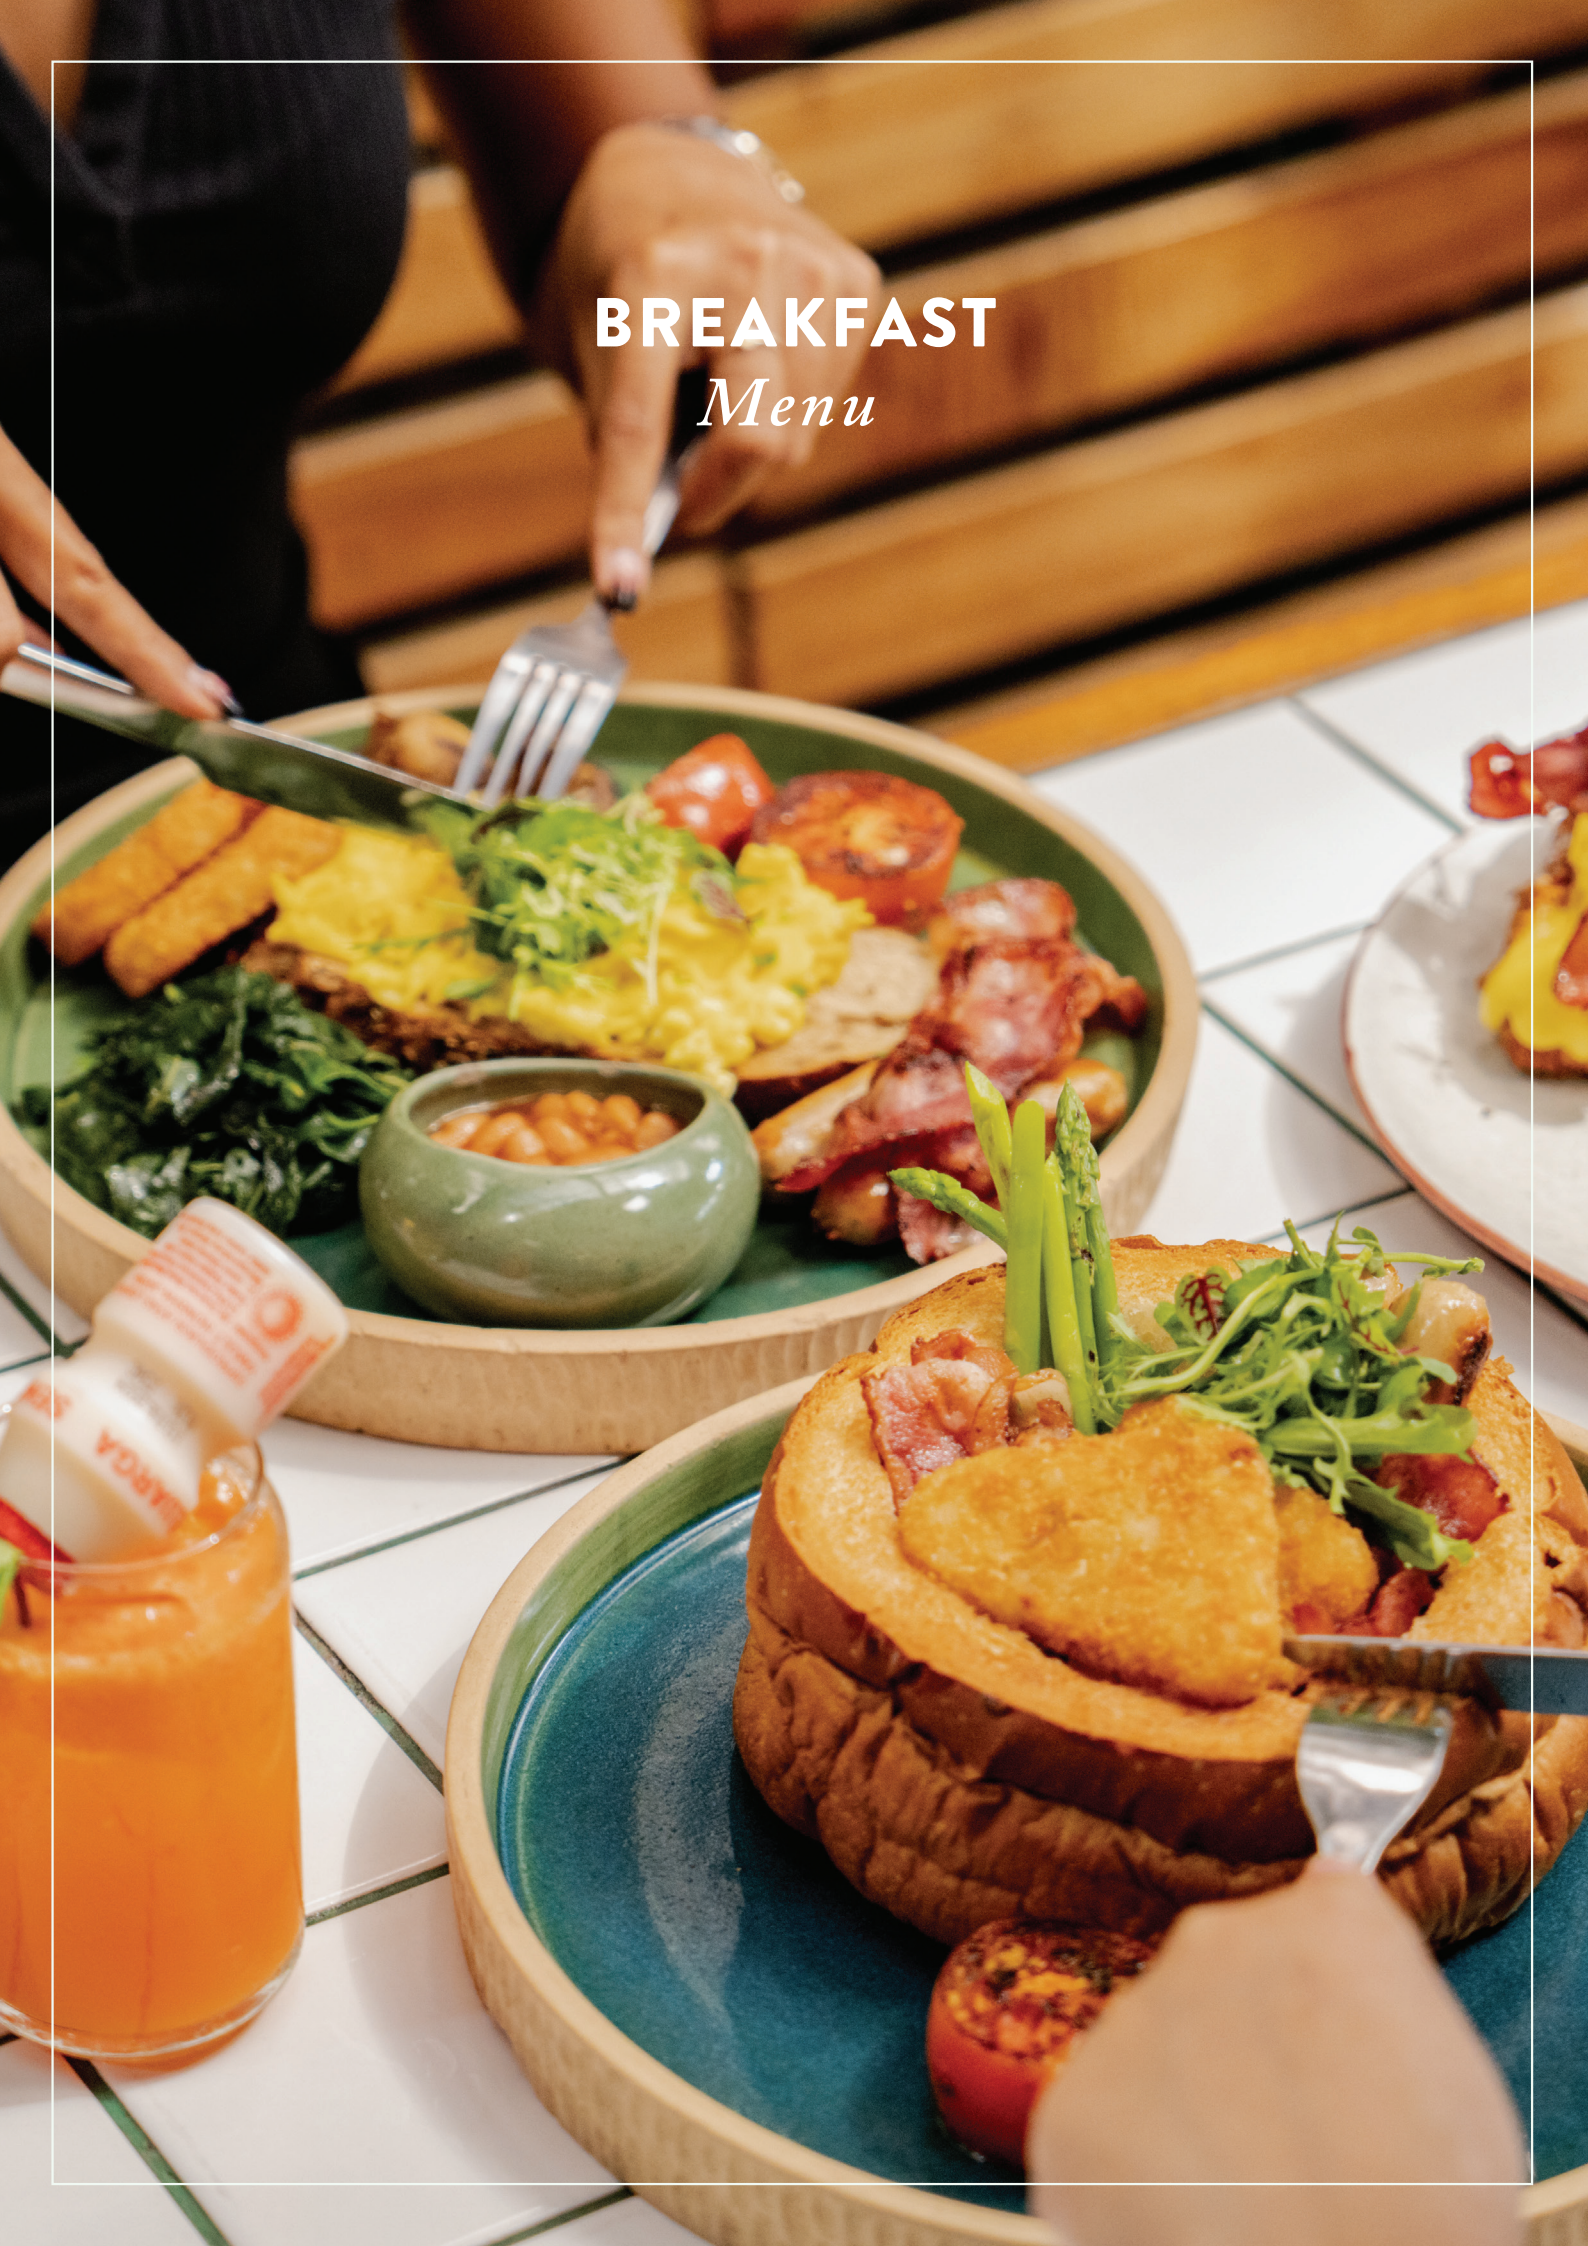

Kipfel's crescent shape is inspired by the crescent symbol on the Ottoman flag. However, according to historical records, Kipfel has been found even since before the Ottoman invasion of Austria. In France, crescent bread is generally sold without filling and eaten without added butter. But outside the country of origin, there are also crescent buns that contain chocolate, meat, and other flavors. Usually raw croissant powder can also be added with praline paste, almond paste or chocolate before baking. Dried fruits, such as raisins or apples, are also often added. It can take up to 5 days to make a croissant. Starting from making the dough, stored overnight, then laminated, stored again overnight, then rolled and baked. It takes a high level of patience to get a sourdough, fermented, artisan taste that is unique and distinctive, which eventually give you a heavenly buttery taste of a warm croissant melting in your mouth. In France and Spain, croissants are generally sold unstuffed and eaten without butter, but sometimes with an alond fillinf. Currently, Croissants are also made with even more flavors and many creative ways to eat them to your liking. One of our favorites, is to dip them into a cup of warm coffee. You can give it a try!

LIVINGSTONE serves the best croissants in Bali since 2014.

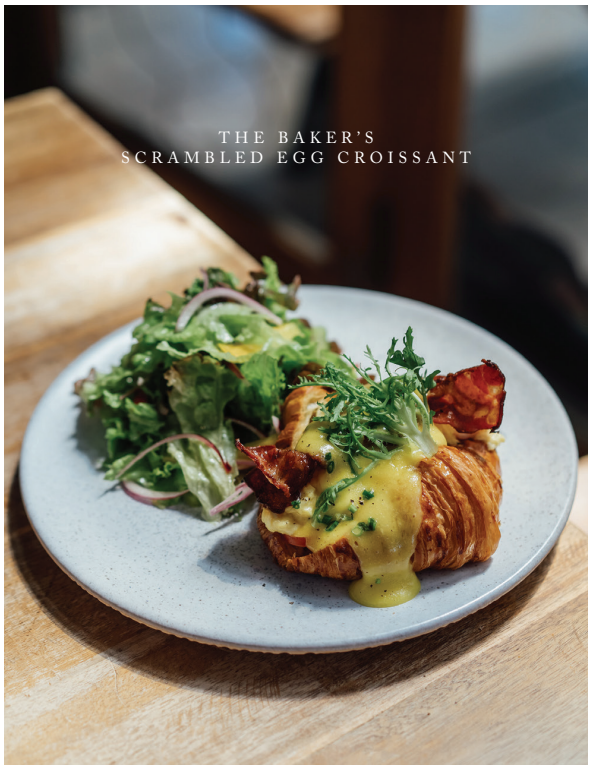

Livingstone is all about passion, love, creativity, great croissants and a divine cup of coffee. As innocent as it sounds, our goal is to inspire people through what we do. We want to share our love and happiness with everyone we meet along the way, be it our valued team members, customers, partners and local communities. It is our pleasure to bring you warmth through our products, services and atmosphere.
